First, I would like to congratulate you on your recent engagement. I realize that in the next few months, you will spend countless hours each day planning all of the details of your wedding day. One thing that you won't want to worry about is capturing the memories of your day. That is the part you will leave up to me. Weddings are my passion! Being married 16 years myself and not being very happy with the images from my wedding, I set out in 2000 on a quest to become the best photographer in the world. Well, I am not there yet, but many of my clients tell me that I am the best in Evansville, at least.

Second, let me tell you a little bit about myself. I bought my first camera when I was 15 and I cannot even begin to count how much money I spent on film. I took pictures of everything, from sunsets and cats to people and buildings. If it stood still long enough, I shot it. I absolutely loved photography! How I ended up working at a bank in a cubicle for 10 years is beyond me. I also photographed weddings almost every weekend while working full time, but every day I sat within my walls and dreamed of being a full-time photographer. So, in 2005, I took the plunge and left my day job to pursue photography full time and I have never looked back. Now I devote most of my time to developing my craft and building relationships with my clients. I love what I do and cannot imagine doing anything else!

"We wanted to thank you for everything you did for us on our wedding day. You were right there when we were at a loss on what to do. At the reception, you played not only the role of photographer, but also helped us with announcements, the order and pacing, and keeping us calm throughout all of the reception mishaps. We could not have asked for better photos and better service. You made us feel at ease, making us completely comfortable. The dynamic you create produces stunning photos, not to mention a really good time. We are so grateful to have had you as our photographer, and greatly honored. We are eagerly recommending you to others. We also hope we have the privilege of working with you again soon."
